

Ulric Publishing - Licensing terms

The Ulric Publishing photographic library is a rich resource for public and private museums, charities and commercial media organisations.

The library includes 20th century military- and motoring history material available to publish and distribute under licence

We are currently developing the library with a view to enabling on-line, digital access.

For further information and/or a copy of the Ulric Publishing Rights Release Form, please telephone or send an email confirming the following information:

- Project overview: indicate commercial and/or private
- Your full name, position (if representing an organisation) postal address and contact telephone number
- Image quantity.
- Image format.
- Territory: worldwide/country-specific.
- Timescales: date images are required.