

Ulric Publishing - About Us

Welcome to Ulric Publishing, Shropshire, England.

We've been publishing and distributing military – and motoring history books since the 1990s.

In addition to our core subject(s) we also provide an eclectic choice of distractable titles ranging from fine art to rock 'n roll.

For gorgeous gifts (and 'must haves') dip into our Lovely In Leather showcase which celebrates the traditional- and almost lost craft of fine bookbinding. The antiquarian titles finished in sumptuous gold tooling will satisfy the most discerning traditionalist, while the on-trend 'Kindle cultures,' will enjoy the contemporary works, hot-off-the-press and leatherbound in jewel-like colours: many unique, most collectible, all tempting.

Our sister company Tailor-Made Books is dedicated to providing premium, bespoke book-related services for private individuals and commercial organisations looking to publish a single- or small number of exquisite books for a given manuscript.
