

Ulric Publishing - Manuscript Submissions

We are always interested to consider non-fiction book proposals and are pleased to invite prospective authors to email synopses and related details to: enquiries@ulricpublishing.com.

We review manuscript submission on the first Monday of every month. Our reviews usually take place over several days.

In the event your manuscript is unfinished, please indicate the proposed completion date with your submission.

Please ensure your submission includes your full name, contact postal address and telephone number.

We are unable to accept synopses which exceed two A4 pages.

Non-Fiction Themes

We are particularly interested to receive publishing proposals for the following genre:

WW2 military history. British & German.
WW2 military & medal collecting. British & German
WW2 military and/or political biographies
20th century classic car history
